What: Decorate your bike and join in Eagan's Funfest Bike Parade!

Where does the bike parade start?

The bike parade will start at the band shell at Central Park. Please arrive early to line up and take a picture with your bike. You may also take a picture after the parade if you would like.

Who can be in the bike parade?

Everybody can join in the bike parade.

Where will the bike parade take place?

The younger riders will circle the band shell and the older group rides will loop around the pond twice and back to the band shell.

Where can spectators view the parade?

Spectators can bring a lawn chair and watch from anywhere along the bike parade route.

Can a parent walk with the child on a bike?

Yes, if the rider would like the parent to walk or ride along with them that is allowed.

Is there a fee to participate?

There is no fee to participate. This is a free event.

What if it is raining?

If it is raining the bike parade will go on as planned.

How long does the event last?

The event will last about 30 minutes from lining up to the end of the parade.

Can I get a picture this year with my bike?

If you arrive early or stay after the parade, you can take a picture with your bike and pick that up later that evening at the informational booth. You will have an option to have the picture send digitally to you or printed or both. If you would like to have your pictured posted to Eagan funfest facebook/twitter page we will ask you to sign a photo release to view it there.

Are prizes awarded?

Yes, each participant will get to choose a prize from our treasure box.

Also, new this year we will be awarding a plaque to the best decorated bike.
